Employment Opportunity 2017 Season

Job Description: Heritage Interpreter/Actor

Employment Type: Student May 7- August 27, 2016 – 37.5 hours per week

Reports To: The General Manager

R.J. Haney Heritage Village & Museum is a forty acre heritage site located in Salmon Arm, BC is looking to hire 4 students that are currently in studies and will be returning to school in the fall. They must be between the ages of 16 and 30, a Canadian citizen, be willing to register in the YCW inventory, be willing to commit to the full duration of the work dates and treat this as their primary job. The position is full time (37.5 hours/week), starting May 7, 2017 and ends August 27, 2017.

We can promise you a memorable and gainful working experience as a Heritage Interpreter/Actor. The Village, Museum and Marjorie's Tea Room offers a unique cultural heritage experience for the traveling and local public from mid May to the end of September. The Village also hosts special events, functions and Villains and Vittles Dinner Theatre 3 nights per week during July and August.

The Heritage Interpreter/Actor works with the General Manager and Visitor Services Department supporting the day to day operation of the Heritage Village and Museum, greeting visitors, leading interpretive tours of the site sharing its fascinating history. Students should have an interest in history and historical events and be willing to learn about our local history. Successful candidates assist in the educational programs, promotion of site interpretation and the Village's activities and depict the local history as an actor in the live performances of our dinner theatre production.

The play is written by a local playwright who will be involved in the direction and production. Students should have acting, music, singing and dancing experience and will be directly involved in developing costumes and props. The Village also organizes other events, weddings and operates a tea room. As a Heritage Interpreter/Actor you will participate in the set-up, implementation and breakdown of these events and services. Candidates must be available to work evenings and weekends.

Candidates should have strong communication skills and be energetic, out-going and punctual and work autonomously within a team environment. The successful candidate should have an interest in studies in one of the following fields: History, Historical Interpretation, Museology, Archaeology, Tourism, Art History, Communications, Education, Theatre, Liberal Arts, Heritage Studies or another relevant discipline.

Resumes with references should be either mailed to the Salmon Arm Museum and Heritage Association at PO Box 1642, Salmon Arm, BC V1E 4P7 or faxed to 250-832-5291 or emailed to info@salmonarmmuseum.org

Note that we are an equal opportunity employer. The position is dependent on approved funding from Young Canada Works or Canada Summer Jobs, approved Government of Canada projects. Candidates will be invited to attend auditions and interviews in early May.
