Heritage Village & Museum

Wondering where your generous donations are allocated?
Your contributions are dedicated to funding projects and maintaining the Heritage Village and Museum.

Generous donations enabled the construction of the Montebello Building and the creation of dioramas that beautifully narrate our community's stories.

Contributions provide vital support for the Museum Gallery, Archives, and Collections.

Donations play a crucial role in preserving the Village's buildings and supporting the annual maintenance budget.

Contributions are essential for the maintenance and preservation of the car collection showcased at the Village.

Contributions were instrumental in the construction of our full-service licensed restaurant, the Sprig of Heather, which offers daily menu service and catering for up to 150 guests.

Your generous contribution assists in the upkeep of the 2.5 KM of walking trails, heirloom gardens, and the overall grounds.

Contributions provide essential support for cultural programs, community events, and interpretive programming.

Generous donations contribute to the creation of the Children's Discovery Centre offering countless hours of playful exploration and enjoyment.

Contributions are directed towards the upkeep of the historic 1910 R.J. Haney House.
